

Phonics Long Term planning and Progression of Skills

- ❖ All lessons must have a specific focus taken from the Little Wandle Letters and Sounds plan.
- ❖ The plan must be followed with fidelity to ensure coverage, pace and progression
- ❖ All lessons should follow the structure of: Review – Teach – Practise – Apply - Assess.
- ❖ Children should be given opportunities to apply new skills independently.
- ❖ Children should be given opportunities to segment and blend words as part of captions and sentences, not just single words in isolation.
- ❖ Phonics should be taught in a multi-sensory way which promotes enjoyment and engagement.
- ❖ ‘Fred fingers’ are used to help identify individual sounds in words for spelling. This encourages children to take note of the number of sounds in words as they count them on the fingers.
- ❖ Sound buttons can be used to help children segment and blend words.
- ❖ Precise language should be used when describing processes and different letter patterns e.g. phoneme, grapheme, vowel, consonant, segmenting, blending, digraph, trigraph, split-vowel digraph, adjacent consonant, common exception words.
- ❖ Letter names should be used consistently from the point that children have been taught them.

Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised 2021: Programme progression

Reception and Year 1 overviews

This programme overview shows the progression of GPCs and tricky words that we teach term-by-term. The progression has been organised so that children are taught from the simple to more complex GPCs, as well as taking into account the frequency of their occurrence in the most commonly encountered words. All the graphemes taught are practised in words, sentences, and later on, in fully decodable books. Children review and revise GPCs and words, daily, weekly and across terms and years, in order to move this knowledge into their long term memory.

Children need to learn to read as quickly as reasonably possible, so they can move from learning to read, to reading to learn, giving them access to the treasure house of reading. Our expectations of progression are aspirational yet achievable if schools maintain pace, practice and participation by all children. Children who are not keeping-up with their peers should be given additional practice immediately through keep-up sessions.
